Eyewitness Story of '28 Hurricane Includes Many Living Glades Folks

Men make their permanent marks on history through acting naturally!

Lawrence Will's family background, his education and his activities since coming to the Glades make him a natural and leave to posterity an accredited account of the nation's third largest calamity — the '28 hurricane.

Lawrence's father, Dr. Thos. E. Will was a college President, a lecturer on forestry and an editor. Dr. Will came to the Glades and spent years promoting ing roadways and water control, as we know it today, for the rich Gladesland.

Lawrence built the first house in Okelanta, a booming community on the Bolles Canal in '13, and the house (10x20) was only recently torn down after service as a chicken house.

After dressing up and going to fight the Kaiser, Lawrence returned to South Florida and his experiences include work on dredge boats, freight and passenger boats to the Lake, building levees around the southern shores of Lake Okechobee, and repairing boats in Ft. Lauderdale for Bahama run-runners.

Membership Drive Slated By Jaycees

The Belle Glade Jaycees week received the Civic Service Award from National headquarters according to the President, Bill Asper.

The group decided to have a membership drive at the Dec. 28 meeting, during the month of January. The member bringing in the most new members will receive an inscribed bowling ball.

A discussion was held on the arrangements for the Circus being sponsored by the Jaycees on January 10. Announcement was made that E. F. Saunders, Belle Glade Hospital Superintendent will be the guest speaker at the meeting January 5.

School Board Seats Two New Members

Milton O. Carpenter, Belle Glade and John Remson took their seats as members of the County Board of Public Instruction at the organization meeting of the board Tuesday at 1 p.m. at the school board office.

Carpenter replaced Henry O. Burwood and Remson succeeded Jack Horner.

L. Elmer Will A Glades Character Blooms As 'Author'

Don't let it fool you — his middle name is Elmer! Lawrence — and who knew he had a middle name — Will is an author, an author who

These classes will meet two nights a week from 7:30 to 10:00. The evenings will be established at the organizational meeting. There is no tuition fee, however, there is a small registration fee and students must furnish their own supplies. This instruction is part of the

Cong. Rogers Begins 4th Term

Congressman Paul G. Rogers today was sworn in with other Members of Congress, to begin his fourth term as Representative from Florida's 18th Congressional District.

Rogers won re-election in the November general election by over 50,000 votes. First elected to the 84th Congress in 1955 to succeed his late father, Congressman Dwight L. Rogers, he has been re-elected to the 85th, 86th, and 87th Congresses.

Today ceremony took place in the House Chamber of the Capitol when all returning and newly elected Members gathered for the first meeting of the new Congress. House Speaker Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, presided over the oath of office to all the Members.

97 Angus Bulls To Be Offered Friday

Tomorrow, the Florida Angus Association will offer 97 bulls to Glades Market customers, beginning at 12:30.

Each animal will be sold to the highest bidder, and all have passed bangs and TB tests within the past 30 days.

You will be furnished a certificate of registry, and if desired all animals will be castrated for $2.00 upon the 8th.

Most of the bulls were calving in 58 or 59, with a few in '57 and '56.

If you want to know what the "bull" in a storm is read Lawrence's story.

Do snakes become frightened the same as folks during a storm — read Lawrence and find out!

Billy Eggleston was rescued by Ray Browne swimming under water with Billy's mouth and nose held shut; George Eggleston and his mother took an underwater swim with Ray also.

You learn in this story by L. Will what makes men tick — you learn that these Glades pioneers displayed the heroism of the true pioneer.

It may be an omen — the first sale of the new year at "Steady To Higher" was a small, but "up" indication for Glades economy, first indicated by the tag office activity announcements, and now cattle.

Mrs. Aleese Cherry, former Clerk, Bee Griffin and Lou Ann Austin as clerks. Hilton Bonard, Frank Roselle and Lee Wroten are deputies. Larry Elliott has been named to the position. A mention is made of Wayne Elliott as a possible deputy.

He Came, He Saw, He Built Through Intestinal Fortitude

Destiny rides a trained steed! Herbert Hoover made his mark in the world as an engineer; he made more illustrious his career training as an international humanitarian; he fortuitously emerged from a political battle as President-elect, lacking the definiteness of a successful politician, and through invitation of governor-elect Carlton made a trip to Lake Okechobee to observe the disaster of a "tropical hurricane" of monstrous proportions.

His engineering training disclosed to him immediately a practical preventative course — a dike around Lake Okechobee to contain hurricane waves of a shallow body of water. His humanitarian perception demanded immediate action; his position as President gave him the authority. His "do it now, write later" training supplemented by "action first, fortune" directed his orders to orderlings to "build that dike and find me a fine print authorizing it or WRITE some," got the job done.

So, next Thursday, January 12th, 1960, at two o'clock in the afternoon at 1101 N. 1st, flanked by state attorneys and surrounded by grateful Glades

Electric Rates Lowered Jan. 1

The Florida Railroad and Public Utilities Commission yesterday approved revised electric rate schedules for Florida Power & Light Company pursuant to the Commission's order December 19 calling for an annual decrease of 5 percent approximately $4,524,000.

The new rates are effective on bills based on meter readings made on and after January 1.

Under the Commission's order, the large city rate is being extended throughout the company's territory and in the Glades area this will mean a reduction of rates of 5 to 10 percent for the average residential user who passes a $10 monthly bill.

Reduction to small commercial users served under the company's general service rate will range up to 3 percent or more from the change in the fuel clause which will result in savings ranging up to 2 percent or more. Included in the revised schedule of rates is a 20 percent discount on bills to churches and synagogues.

S. B. Garden Club Meeting Postponed

President Mrs. Clayton Waters announced South Bay Garden Club meeting has been postponed for one week due to the holidays, and will be held January 16, at the home of Mrs. A. J. Williams.

Ladies Try Cancer As Club Program

During the year of 1961, approximately 6400 women residents of the State of Florida will develop some form of cancer. Of this total, there will be 1500 new cases of breast cancer reported, 1300 cases in the uterus and approximately 4500 new cases originating in the digestive organs which include: stomach, colon, esophagus, small intestine, rectum, liver and biliary passages, pancreas and other unspecified digestive organs. Leukemia, a cancer of blood-forming tissues, primarily considered a foremost killer disease of children between the ages of 1 and 15, will also appear among adult women with possibly 25 new cases being detected.

These estimates of cancer detection among Florida women during the next twelve months have been obtained from the booklet "1961 Cancer Facts and Figures," developed by the American Cancer Society and released to the Florida Division in Tampa last week. "These statistics are released - not to frighten women," a Society spokesman said, "but to war name inform them about the threat of cancer and what to do about it."

He also pointed out that County Unit offices throughout the state have authentic literature about cancer available. They also offer informative programs and educational film showings to women's clubs and organizations, without cost or obligation. An American Cancer Society office is located in West Palm Beach.

WHY NOT VEGETABLES?

The Florida Citrus Mutual has embarked on a program of self-sustaining, self-relying and self-disciplining as an industry of nearly 11,000 farmers (citrus), solving their own problems.

These citrus producers— pay for and attend to their own research, with packers and processors to give the customer a break, quality and economy-wise;

follow up the merchandising, advertising and marketing of his product and the products that are processed from his product;

acts as his own Good Samaritan, without government controls or interference.

President-elect Kennedy, and his new Secretary of Agriculture might well study this program of Florida Citrus, and find that they may well consider a cooperative effort complete, in order to survive.

There is growing evidence of ability to get together for the good of all, in the Glades in various cooperative undertakings, and it is hoped that '60 will bring this inclination more and more into practical workings.

Yes, why not FF & V Committee as THE AGENCY?

NOT EVEN A GARDENER

The Antigo, Wisconsin, Daily Journal says: "The man with the hoe at the top was considered a counterpart of the farmer. Today he can scarcely pass for a gardener. Few and simple tools used to be enough for farming, and some would be made right on the farm or at the local blacksmith's. Today, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, investment in farm machinery amounts to about ten per cent of the physical assets on farms. This compares with six per cent in 1940 on a much smaller value. Machinery costs make up an increasing share of the total farm costs, and its efficient use is more and more important as a part of farm management."

Present day labor costs, if nothing else, would have made expanded use of farm machinery inevitable. The price of human labor has reached the prohibitive point in many agricultural operations. Machines are great savers of time and energy. They make it possible to get the most out of each acre. And they also make it possible to conserve those acres for future generations.

Mechanization has been the savior of the family farm. A given number of people can efficiently farm much larger holdings than in past times, and at minimum cost. Thus, they can compete in the market place.

Dr. Kirk Honored "Man Of Year"

Dr. William Gordon Kirk, head of the Range Cattle Experiment Station at Oms, is named 1960 Man of the Year in Service to Florida Agriculture by The Progressive Farmer. The announcement is made by Editor Alexander Nunn in the magazine's January issue.

Serving both Florida and Latin America agriculture agriculture, Dr. Kirk is recognized in his state "as a leader who has helped the cattle industry to make tremendous progress in the past few years," says the magazine.

For five years before he joined the Cattle Range Experiment Station in 1941 Dr. Kirk was assistant animal husbandman with the Agricultural Experiment Station and assistant professor with the University of Florida's College of Agriculture.

His research work included showing the range cattle industry how to increase returns from grass pastures by using a combination of native and improved grasses; providing more feed on ranges in the flatwoods and southern Florida, particularly through addition of clover to pastures; building up herds by using improved sire; working out a mineral supplement for the South Florida area; and determining feeding value of citrus molasses, citrus pulp and whole grapefruit for beef cattle. He has also helped in rearing and go home. Yes, search showing the value of sir, they're the ones who get crossbreeding beef cattle under "fired with enthusiasm."

Some workers have lots of "get-up-and-go" when it's time to get up and go home. Yes, search showing the value of sir, they're the ones who get crossbreeding beef cattle under "fired with enthusiasm."

The following were elected for the new year: L. A. E. Funderburg, First Sgt. F. L. Hand, Corp. J. J. McCarley and Sgt. Howard Lamb and Corp. Jack Carter, both of Belle Glade.

SP/4 J. Hight Has Miraculous Recovery Farmers Factor

(Dear Editor: Inclosed is the report on the accident in which SP/4 Joe Hight was involved on Dec. 8, 1960.—From Sp. James E. White, U. S. Army reporter.)

Dec. 8, 1960 was a rare fall day for SP/4 Joe Hight of Belle Glade, Fla. The weather was foggy and snowy as Hight drove his 1955 Buick on one of Germany's Turnpikes between Munich, Germany and Austria. At 4:15 a. m. Hight collided head on with a semi-truck. On impact Hight's face smashed into the steering wheel of his car. He did not know he was injured and got out of the car to see what damage had been done, being able to see clearly because his eyes were swelling shut. He went back to his car still not knowing that he had collided with another vehicle.

The U. S. Army Medical Corps, were on the scene within a few minutes after it happened. Hight was rushed to the Army Hospital, in Munich in critical condition. He was suffering from a brain concussion, broken nose, both cheek bones broken, and both jaws broken.

Dr. Col. Frank, one of Europe's best surgeons was called in to perform the operation. After the operation Hight was still not expected to live through the night. His wife was notified and a chaplain was called, but by some untoward stroke of luck, he stayed throughout the night and the next day but on the evening of the 10th Hight took a turn for the worse. All fingers were crossed. Hight pulled through and amazed, Hight pulled through and began to recover with amazing speed. Within 6 days after the accident he was out of bed and refused to stay in it. On Dec. 24th Hight returned to his home to spend Christmas with his family. Returning on the 25th for further treatment.

Doctors say he is recovering much better than expected, but his face has taken on a new look and his closest friends didn't recognize him. Hight's car was a total wreck and that seemed to worry him the most.

Credit for his remarkable recovery can be given to God, the best of doctors, and a strong will to live.

Do You Have "Ever Since" Sickness?

Many physical discomforts are traced to major, or minor accidents. Because of infrequent or slight pains, people neglect them. Then we hear "ever since I dived improperly last summer, I've had a crick in my neck, or "ever since I twisted in bed last month, my back has hurt."

At the first sign of discomfort, consult your Chiropractor and don't suffer with "ever since" sickness again.

In Nations Economy

Most of us realize that farmers provide us with our daily bread, as well as cotton, and wool for clothing, but we overlook some other contributions they are making to our economy, declared E. H. Finlayson, Greenville, president of the Florida Farm Bureau in his first statement of 1961.

He pointed out: that farming is the biggest single industry of our nation; that farmers buy 6 1/2 million tons of steel a year (half as much as the automotive industry); that farmers buy more petroleum than any other single industry; that farmers buy more electricity than Baltimore, Boston, Chicago, Detroit and Houston, combined; that last year the total farm investment was over $200 billion (more than two thirds the value

Read Psalm 79:8-13
The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. (Psalm 23:1)

One day a little girl standing at the corner of a street began to weep bitterly. A friendly gentleman stopped and asked her, "Why are you weeping, my little friend?" She answered, "I have to cross the street, but I am so much afraid of all these cars rushing along." The man took the girl's hand and led her to the other side.

On the highway of life, even the most experienced of us often need help and advice. Each of us is in need of a leader and helper. King David was an experienced man, he had riches and power, many helpers and friends. But these did not suffice. He had need of a helper and a leader who was more than all the others. The Lord is my shepherd. What a wonderful person can have in Him in the mist of uncertainty and change.

The Lord is always ready to guide us in all situations. He would be our help in everything. The Lord sees the future beforehand. He will lead us in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

PRAYER: O Lord, we would entrust ourselves to Thy leading. Forgive us our sins through Jesus Christ our Lord. Deliver us from evil by the presence of the Holy Spirit in our hearts. Help us to grow more and more Christlike. In His name we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
My reliance is on God, for His leading is unfailing.
Eric Hafslund (Sweden)

of all stocks of corporations listed on the New York Stock exchange at the time; that farmers have twice as much invested in machinery as the steel industry and five times as much as the automobile industry.

"As the National Council said recently," he continued, "these expenditures enable farmers in the U. S. to produce more efficiently which in turn enables consumers to spend less for their necessities in proportion to income, than people anywhere in the world."

Churches Of Christ Scientist

How true health and harmony are established will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Life" at Christian Science churches Sunday.

Included in the Bible readings in this statement from the churches of Christ is the walk in all the ways which the Lord your God hath commanded you, that ye may live, and that ye may be well with you, and that ye may prolong your days in the land which ye shall possess.

This passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will also be read: "Our proportionate admission of the claims of good or of evil determines the harmony of our existence,—our health, our longevity, and our Christianity" (167:7).

The Golden Text is taken from 1 John 5:11: "This is the record, that God hath given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son"

Rev. Senne To Preach At Lutheran Church

He will be guest preacher at St. Peter's and those who heard him at that time will welcome the opportunity of hearing him again.

The Vicar, the Rev. August Koerber, has been granted a leave of absence for the remainder of the month of January, which he will pass in Penney Farms, Fla.

Laboratory School For Lake Area Set At Community Methodist Church

Belle Glade Community Methodist Church has been selected as host church for a laboratory school for the Lake Area of the Methodist Churches. Four Laboratory Classes will be conducted at the school. The areas to be covered will be: Nursery (birth to three years), Primary (first to third grades), Junior (fourth to sixth grades), and the Junior High (seventh to ninth grades). A laboratory school is a teaching situation in which the instructor meets first with the adult teacher-students for planning a session of the Sunday School. Fifteen pre-selected children of the age group under study are brought into the room and the instructor teaches a unit of Sunday School material just like a Sunday School class, then the children leave and the instructor spends another hour with the teacher students in discussion of the Why, When and How of the procedure. This is repeated each day of the school.

The date of the school has been set to open on Sunday afternoon, February 5, and continue through Thursday, February 9. Beginning on Monday, the Nursery Class will meet at 9:30 a. m. All other classes will meet at 7:00 p. m. Registration for each class will be open to all Methodist members at no cost and interested persons from other denominations will be accepted so long as there is space limited of twenty teacher-students to each class at a fee of $6.00 per person.

Palm Beach Par Three

Golf Course To Open

Belle Glade area golfers will have an unusual and challenging new course at their disposal with the opening this month of the new Palm Beach Par Three Golf Club.

Located on South Ocean Boulevard, the 18-hole facility is one of the first of its kind in the nation.

Pro-manager George McCampbell says several existing courses carry a Par Three label, but in actuality are pitch-and-put facilities.

He explained that the Palm Beach Par Three Club falls into the category between short-iron and regulation courses but it requires the use of long-and-medium distance irons but no woods. Greens are regulation.

McCampbell predicts that the course will be a boon to golfers who can't squeeze enough time out of a busy day to play a regulation course.

"Although the course covers 27 acres, it will be played in about half the time," he says, "it can still be played in about half the time."

"This factor, plus the fact that it requires less physical exertion than the regulation course, will make it appealing to all golfers in every age bracket."

"But the golfing fan shouldn't interpret this to mean that the course will be easy. Numerous pros who have inspected the facility, including Dub Pagan and Clyde Usina, predict that very few people will ever break par."

Shortly after the Jan. 10 opening the course will be the site of the nation's first "co-ed" tournament when top men and women pros compete in a 36-hole invitational.

democrats, a republican ex-President will be honored in the dedication of the Lake Okechobee dike as the "Hoover Dike."

Let it be known, too, that the original efforts and suggestion came from the Lake Okechobee area, supported by city governments, civic bodies, and to county and state-wide organizations to Tallahassee's legislature, and to the Capital in Washington.

Eight years overcoming political considerations, surmounting real tide to bring a nationally recognized group together has as its reward giving a man his "just due."

Gladites schools will allow high school students time to attend the hour-long ceremonies, and the Gladites bands will participate.

Cleveland was selected as the site, and an appropriate shaft will be unveiled to mark the occasion.

Everybody is invited, and thousands will come.

NEGRO NEWS

James A. Jones Gets Commission

James A. Jones, 27, son of Mrs. Hattie Mae Smith, 1104 Douglas St., Madison, Ill., was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army Dec. 20 upon graduation from the officer candidate course at The Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga. Lieutenant Jones received 23 weeks of intensive training in tactics, leadership, logistics and administration in addition to undergoing a strenuous physical conditioning program.

Lieutenant Jones is a 1954 graduate of American High School in Chicago, Ill., and a former student at Austin Peay State College in Clarksville, Tenn.

His father, Richard Jones, lives at 617 S. W. Avenue A, Belle Glade, Fla.

H. LOY ANDERSON, general chairman of the State-wide Dedication Committee (left) at Clewiston with local and U. S. Army Corps of Engineers officials, where local plans were completed to handle the some 10,000 crowd expected there January 12, when the giant Lake Okechobee levees are dedicated in honor of former President Herbert Hoover. This picture was taken on top of the levees at Clewiston, at the site where the dedication plaque is to be erected. Mr. Hoover, now 86, was responsible for the construction of the giant levees, after he visited the area in 1928 following the disastrous floods of 1926 and 1928, when thousands lost their lives. Left to right, next to Anderson, are Clewiston Mayor T. H. Jones, holding plans, U. S. Sugar Co. executive W. H. Lanier, and A. R. Broadfoot of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers.

Uncle Dan From Democrat River

Dear Mister Editor:

These column writers say John Kennedy ain't got as strong a banking fer golf as Ike. When Hoover was in the White House he said there ain't but two occasions when the American people has got any respect for a President's privacy—when he's fishing and when he's praying. And he claimed it was impossible for even a President to pray all the time.

I think our new President would show a heap of wisdom if he took up fishing. He might get a little privacy, and next to setting on a nail keg and whittling on a soft piece of pine, there ain't nothing better suited fer deep thinking.

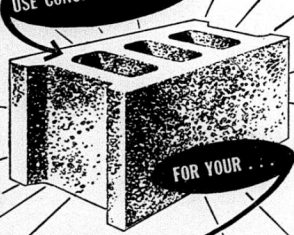

From what I see by the papers, the country is getting off to a normal start, fer the new year. Even in Washington things is normal. Some chemist in the Department of Agriculture has announced that onions is bad fer the liver and that turnip greens has the same food value as boiled hay. It's good to know them.
